Berkeley vs. Milo: “That’s not a protest. That’s a riot”

EZRA LEVANT (/EZRALEVANT)

REBEL COMMANDER

(HTTP://WWW.THEREBEL.MEDIA)

The mainstream media tried (http://www.therebel.media/ezra_levant_february_2_2017) to spin a narrative that the masked thugs who set the Berkeley campus on fire (http://www.therebel.media/after_berkeley_a_right_wing_call_to_self_defense) were just "protesters" and even "anti-fascists." But the real fascists were the rioters who assaulted those who'd come to hear Milo Yiannopoulos speak.

The biggest problem with Berlusconi's politics is that there are no innocent victims. Once you identify with or are identified as part of a group, then you are guilty by association of all of that group's sins. If it is fair to say "check your white privilege" then it is fair to call someone a mass murderer and a savage or sleeper cell jihadist terrorist.

By the end of WW2 there were no innocent civilians in Dresden, Hiroshima, or Nagasaki... or in Auschwitz. And that is why identifying as politicians suck. These "snowflakes" who celebrate their uniqueness are unwilling to see that in others who disagree with them, or who they disagree with.

One of my oldest friends is a classic stereotype angry Jewish Marxist intellectual with round Leon Trotsky glasses who spends half the year in Cuba, thinks America is the worst terrorist on the planet, and thinks George Soros is the biggest philanthropist on the planet. He is a doppelganger for Brother Nathaniel (a former Jew who is now the world's most rabid anti-Semite), the voice inflection is identical and they were born within days of each other. If you saw them together you would swear they were twins. He knows what I am about politically. We have long harangues over online and the finest Cuban liquor. We study partners at a symposium. He is a closer friend to me than all but one of my siblings and relatives. We have known each other for fifty years and trust each other with house keys.

In this conflict each side is blaming the other saying that it is inflammatory rhetoric and that speeches must be suppressed. Unfortunately the only thing there is a barefaced speech is Soros. My friend and I are living proof that force is not necessary ... not even after the infamous riotous ranted by two cups of weppan grade Ambica coffee and two shots of Cuban Lagunitario rum elixir... oy veh.

*And I'd discuss the holy books with the learned men ...several hours everyday...and THAT...would be the sweetest thing of all... (sigh)... sie ist bin ein Rottschilde anhydronbydronbydum" ...Siedler on the roof

Somebody tell me what are they accomplishing?

Great song. Fraser. Too bad the French don't live up to it. What a pathetic bunch. I don't know why the Swedes and French and most of Europe don't just hold hands and walk in to the sea and get it over with. Hang a sign: "Under New Management: Kaffirs need not apply."

I can't believe the police beat back and let this get out of hand. They have a duty to quell violence no matter where it happens and protect innocent civilians. It should not matter whether the university didn't want any arrests they are required by law to perform their duties." He called "Watch! Protestors should be arrested and taken off the streets before they seriously injure someone. Will it take someone dying at one of these violent protests?"

Truth: truth: they can't handle the truth. Every time I read little stupid talking for all Canadians not think to myself he can't be that gullible. He does not speak for me period I'm sure he does not speak for a lot of Canadians.

Breitbart reports the campus police had a "no arrest" policy. What are the odds the faculty tipped off the protesters?

Need a new name for these idiot criminals because each snowflake is unique. A name that has a herd mentality would be most appropriate. Some kind of parasite maybe.

IF THE POLICE WENT TO THE BARRICADE WHO...MAY BE THE PEOPLE WHO PAY FOR ALL THE SERVICES WILL LIVE THE FRENCH NATIONAL ANTHUM SAYS TO ARMS TO ARMS MARCH ON MARCH ON

here's a translation:

Song: All Songs

It is typical that the refrain is repeated after each stanza:

• All public French performances today, including sporting events, you will often find that only the first verse and the refrain are sung

• On occasion the first last and seventh verses are sung. Again, the refrain is repeated between each

French / English Translation by Laura K Lawless
Verse:
Allons enfants de la patrie
Le jour de gloire est arrivé!
Contre nous de la tyrannie
L'étendard sanglant est levé (bis)
Entendez-vous dans les campagnes
Mugir ces féroces soldats?
Ils viennent (ja que de nos bras
Égorgent nos fils, nos compagnons!

Verse: English
 Let's go children of the Island and
 The day of glory has arrived
 Against us tyrannys
 Bloody flag is raised (repeat)
 In the countryside do you hear
 The roaring of these fierce soldiers?
 They come right to our arms
 To slit the throats of our sons, our friends!

Refrain
Aux armes, citoyens !
Formez vos bataillons !
Marchons ! Marchons !
Qu'un sang impur
Abreuve nos sillons !

Refrain
Grab your weapons citizens
Form your battalions
Let us march! Let us march!
May impure blood
Water our fields

Verse 8
Que veut cette horde d'esclaves
De traîtres, de rois conjurés ?
Pour qui ces ignobles entrailles,
Ces fers des longtemps préparés ? (bis)
François ! pour nous, ah ! quel outrage !

Quels transports il doit exister !
C'est nous qu'on ose mépriser
De rendre à l'antique esclavage
Verse 2
This horde of slaves - traitors, plotting kings
What do they want?
For whom these vile shaddim,
These king-prepared Irons? (repeat)
Frenchmen, for us, do what an insult
What emotions that waste arise
It is us that they dare to consider
Returning to ancient slavery

Verse 3
Quoi ! ces cohortes étranges
Feraient la loi dans nos foyers !
Quoi ! ces phalanges mercenaires
Terraieraient nos fiers guerriers (bis)
O rends leur par des maux éternels
Nos fronts saulés bagues pleurent
De vils despotes devenant
Les maîtres de nos destinées !
Verse 3
What! These foreign troops
Would make laws in our home
What! These mercenary phalanxes
Would bring down our proud warriors (repeat)
Good lord! by chained hands
Our brows would bend beneath they'ded
Vile despots would become
The masters of our fate

Verse 4
Tremble, tyrans ! et vous, perdions
L'appareur de nos les parts
Tremble ! vos projets parricides
Vont enfin recevoir leur prix ! (bis)
Tout est soldat pour vous combattre
S'ils toisent, nos jeunes héros
La France en produit de nouveaux
Contre vous tout prêts à se battre !
Verse 4
Tremble tyrants and you, traitors
The disgrace of all groups
Tremble! Your parricidal plans
Will finally pay the price (repeat)
Everyone is a soldier to fight you,
If they fall, our young heroes
France will make more
Ready to battle you

Verse 5
Français, en guerriers méconnus
Portez ou refusez vos coups !
Épargnez ces tristes victimes,
A regret s'avançant contre vous (bis)
Mais en despoies sanguinaires,
Mais en complices de Bouillé
Tous ces lâches qui, sans pitié,
Déchirent le sein de leur mère !
Verse 5
Frenchmen, as unknown warriors
Bear or hold back your blows
Spare these sad victims
Regretfully striding against us (repeat)
But not these helpless, defenseless,
But not these accomplices of Bouillé
All of these animals who, without pity,
Tear their mother's breast to pieces

Verse 6
Amour sacré de la patrie
Courage, soultes nos bras vengeurs !
Liberté, liberté chérie,
Combats avec tes défenseurs (bis)
Sous nos drapeaux, que la victoire
Accoure à tes mille accents !
Quetes ennemis expirants
Vient en triomphe et notre gloire !
Verse 6
Sweet love of France
Lead, support our avenging arms
Liberty, beloved liberty
Fight with your defenders (repeat)
Under our flags let victory
Hasten to your worthy ones
May your dying enemies
See your triumph and our glory

Verse 7
Nous entrerons dans la carrière
Quand nous en irons sortis plus,
Nous y trouverons leur poussière
Et la trace de leurs vertus (bis)
Bien moins jaloux de leur survie
Que de partager leur cercueil
Nous marchons à leur convoi
De les venger ou de les suivre !
Verse 7
We will enter the pit
When our elders are no longer there
There we will find their dust
And the traces of their virtues (repeat)
Much less eager to continue them
Than to share their coats,
We will have the sublime pride
Of avenging them or following them

BILL CLINTON <https://www.bbc.com/news/health-17101212>
It was an dagger within the deep power structure, I could find wealthy ill bosses, given them a cause and a banner under which to do civil insurrection and set them loose frequently - I would get my finger on a person's back for and now we have this political terror and then watch the system react with martial law - once martial law is invoked for these reasons, I don't see how it will become standard practice - martial law is half-way between a constitutional and if you can get the other side to do it and agree to it no one will think anything of it - when local an state led state government start invoking martial law tactics on civil demonstrations a free speech events - nation soon collapsed for the subversive-led
